DECLARATION.

YOUR ROYAL HIGHNESSES, MY LORDS AND GENTLEMEN,

I meet you to-day in circumstances which are without parallel in the history of our country. Now that the duties of Sovereignty have fallen to me I declare to you my adherence to the strict principles of constitutional government and my resolve to work before all else for the welfare of the British Commonwealth of Nations. With my wife as helpmate by my side, I take up the heavy task which lies before me. In it I look for the support of all my peoples. Furthermore my first act on succeeding my brother will be to confer on him a Dukedom and he will henceforth be known as His Royal Highness the Duke of Windsor.

Following Gazette Extraordinary issued today begins:-

His Excellency the Governor General in Council directs the publication of the following documents which have been transmitted to him by command of His Majesty the King Emperor:-

(1) INSTRUMENT OF ABDICATION OF HIS MAJESTY KING EDWARD THE EIGHTH KING OF GREAT BRITAIN, IRELAND AND THE BRITISH DOMINIONS BEYOND THE SEAS, EMPEROR OF INDIA

I, Edward the Eighth of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the seas King, Emperor of India, do hereby declare my irrevocable determination to renounce the throne for myself and for my descendants and my desire that effect should be given to this Instrument of Abdication immediately in token whereof I have hereunto set my hand this tenth day of December nineteen hundred and thirtysix in the presence of the witnesses whose signatures are subscribed. Edward R.I. Signed at Fort Belvedere in the presence of Albert Henry George.

(2) MESSAGE FROM HIS MAJESTY EDWARD THE EIGHTH OF GREAT BRITAIN, IRELAND AND THE BRITISH DOMINIONS BEYOND THE SEAS KING, EMPEROR OF INDIA.

Fort Belvedere, Sunningdale, Berkshire.

After long and anxious consideration I have determined to renounce the throne to which I succeeded on the death of my father and I am now communicating this my final and irrevocable decision. Realising, as I do, the gravity of this step I can only hope that I shall have the understanding of my peoples in the decision I have taken and the reasons which have led me to take it. I will not enter now into my private feeling, but I would beg that it should be remembered that the burden which constantly rests upon the shoulders of a Sovereign is so heavy that it can only be borne in circumstances different from those in which I now find myself.

I conceive that I am not overlooking the duty that rests on me to place in the forefront the public interest when I declare that I am conscious that I can no longer discharge this heavy task with efficiency or with satisfaction to myself. I have accordingly this morning executed an Instrument of Abdication in the terms following:-

I, Edward the Eighth of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the seas King, Emperor of India, do hereby declare my irrevocable determination to renounce the throne for myself and for my descendants and my desire that effect should be given to this Instrument of Abdication immediately. In token whereof I have nereunto set my hand this tenth day of December nineteen hundred and thirty six in the presence of the witnesses whose signatures are subscribed. - (Signed) Edward R.I.

My execution of this instrument has been witnessed by my three brothers, Their Royal Highnesses the Duke of York, the Duke of Gloucester and the Duke of Kent. I deeply appreciate this spirit which has actuated the appeals which have been made to me to take a different decision and I have, before reaching my final determination, most fully pondered over them, but my mind is made up. Moreover further delay cannot but be most injurious to the people whom I have tried to serve as Prince of Wales and as King and whose future happiness and prosperity are the constant wish of my heart. I take my leave of them in the confident hope that the course which I have thought it right to follow is that which is best for the stability of the throne and empire and the happiness of my peoples. I am deeply sensible of the consideration which they have always extended to me both 4a before and after my accession to the throne and which, I know, they will extend in full measure to my successor. I am most anxious that there should be no delay of any kind in giving effect to the instrument which I have executed and that all necessary steps should be taken immediately to secure that my lawful successor, my brother, His Royal Highness the Duke of York, should ascend the throne.

Edward R.I. ~~Ends.~~

NOTIFICATION.

No. 1435—C. B., dated 12th December 1936.

The following Gazette Extraordinary of the Government of India is republished :—

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA, HOME DEPARTMENT.

No. F. 6936—Public, dated the 11th December 1936.

His Excellency the Governor-General in Council directs the publication of the following documents which have been transmitted to him by command of His Majesty the King-Emperor :—

(1) Instrument of Abdication of His Majesty King Edward the Eighth, King of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India.

"I, Edward the Eighth of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, King-Emperor of India, do hereby declare my irrevocable determination to renounce the Throne for myself and for my descendants and my desire that effect should be given to this Instrument of Abdication immediately in token whereof I have hereunto set my hand this tenth day of December nineteen hundred and thirty-six in the presence of the witnesses whose signatures are subscribed.—EDWARD, R.I. (Signed at Fort Belvedere in the presence of Albert Henry George.)"

(2) Message from His Majesty Edward the Eighth of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, King-Emperor of India.

FORT BELVEDERE, SUNNINGDALE, BERKSHIRE.

"After long and anxious consideration I have determined to renounce the Throne to which I succeeded on the death of my father and I am now communicating this my final and irrevocable decision. Realising, as I do, the gravity of this step I can only hope that I shall have the understanding of my peoples in the decision I have taken and the reasons which have led me to take it. I will not enter now into my private feeling, but I would beg that it should be remembered that the burden which constantly rests upon the shoulders of a Sovereign is so heavy that it can only be borne in circumstances different from those in which I now find myself.

"I conceive that I am not overlooking the duty that rests on me to place in the forefront the public interest when I declare that I am conscious that I can no longer discharge this heavy task with efficiency or with satisfaction to myself. I have accordingly this morning executed an Instrument of Abdication in the terms following:—

'I, Edward the Eighth of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, King-Emperor of India, do hereby declare my irrevocable determination to renounce the throne for myself and for my descendants and my desire that effect should be given to this Instrument of Abdication immediately. In token whereof I have hereunto set my hand this tenth day of December nineteen hundred and thirty-six in the presence of the witnesses whose signatures are subscribed.—(Signed) EDWARD, R.I.'

"My execution of this Instrument has been witnessed by my three brothers, Their Royal Highnesses the Duke of York, the Duke of Gloucester and the Duke of Kent. I deeply appreciate the spirit which has actuated the appeals which have been made to me to take a different decision and I have, before reaching my final determination, most fully pondered over them, but my mind is made up. Moreover further delay cannot but be most injurious to the people whom I have tried to serve as Prince of Wales and as King and whose future happiness and prosperity are the constant wish of my heart. I take my leave of them in the confident hope that the course which I have thought it right to follow is that which is best for the stability of the Throne and Empire and the happiness of my peoples. I am deeply sensible of the consideration which they have always extended to me both before and after my accession to the Throne and which, I know, they will extend in full measure to my successor. I am most anxious that there should be no delay of any kind in giving effect to the Instrument which I have executed and that all necessary steps should be taken immediately to secure that my lawful successor, my brother, HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE DUKE OF YORK, should ascend the Throne.—EDWARD, R.I."
